Fort Lauderdale, FL – The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection redefines the art of luxury at sea, seamlessly blending the brand's legendary service with the timeless elegance of yachting. Since launching in 2022, the collection has set a new standard for ultra-luxury travel experiences with a fleet of meticulously crafted superyachts, offering unparalleled discovery both on board and ashore. The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection promises world-class hospitality, innovative culinary concepts from celebrated chefs, rejuvenating wellness at The Ritz-Carlton Spa®, and a signature marina enhancing the connection to the water, across three bespoke yachts: Evrima, Ilma, and Luminara. "The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection has redefined luxury travel at sea, creating a more intimate, personalized, and exceptional way to explore the world," said Alan Leibman, Chief Executive Officer of The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection. "As we look to the future, our priority is to build on this strong foundation, continually elevating the guest experience, investing in our people and service, and creating extraordinary journeys that combine discovery, authentic connections, and unforgettable memories."

"We don't want The Ritz-Carlton to follow the evolution of luxury, we want to lead it," says Tina Edmundson, President of Luxury at Marriott International. "With Evrima and Ilma, we reimagined what it means to journey by sea, creating an experience that speaks to the curious, the discerning, and those seeking something truly rare. These yachts have not only drawn a new generation of travelers to the water, they've redefined what cruising can be. With the arrival of Luminara, we continue that pursuit: crafting voyages that are as unforgettable as the destinations themselves, and setting a new course for elegance, discovery, and the art of hospitality at sea."

A New Benchmark in Ultra-Luxury Voyages

The launch of The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection marked the first time a luxury hospitality brand ventured into the ultra-luxury yachting category, welcoming travelers to embark on journeys that blend relaxation with adventure. Boasting spacious suites and an unwavering focus on anticipatory service, every detail reflects the brand's commitment to renowned intuitive care and expert craftsmanship. The yachts also facilitate effortless access to dining, art, and culture, enabling guests to fully engage with the spirit of each locale. As travelers seek transformative adventures, The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection continues to lead the way in creating memorable moments that resonate long after the voyage ends.

A Fleet Designed for Exploration and Connection

Each contemporary superyacht from The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection is inspired by the elegance of private yacht design with sleek exteriors, sophisticated suites, and inviting communal areas. Interiors evoke the residential feel of The Ritz-Carlton accommodations ashore, with airy suites that perfectly marry form and function. Breathtaking sanctuaries at sea reveal floor-to-ceiling glass windows and expansive private terraces with endless views, ushering in natural light and deepening the connection to the surrounding seascapes.

Greek for "discovery," Evrima, launched in October 2022, is a 624-foot (190-meter) yacht with 149 refined suites accommodating up to 298 guests. Sailing through the Mediterranean, Northern Europe, select voyages in the Caribbean, and the South Pacific starting in December 2026, Evrima was purpose-built for an intimate experience, affording access to exclusive destinations such as Saint-Tropez, typically unreachable by larger ships. Travelers enjoy effortless accommodations and a range of elevated programming, including revitalizing ESPA, 111SKIN, and Pisterzi spa treatments, watersports from the yacht's marina while at anchor, and more. Among Evrima's five distinctive dining options is S.E.A., created in collaboration with acclaimed chef Sven Elverfeld.

Ilma, meaning "water" in Maltese, is the collection's second yacht and the world's first Forbes Five-Star Cruise Ship, which set sail in September 2024. Measuring 790 feet (241 meters), Ilma accommodates up to 448 guests in 224 light-filled suites, each with a private terrace. The yacht introduced two expansive upper suite categories exceeding 1,000 square feet, along with five restaurants highlighting two new concepts developed with Fabio Trabocchi and Michael Mina, seven bars, a wine vault, and a top-deck entertainment space. Signature spaces include The Ritz-Carlton Spa® and an enhanced marina with a mezzanine providing direct access to the sea. Its itineraries span the Mediterranean and the Caribbean, where exploration and relaxation await guests.

The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection continues to reinforce its gold standard for ultra-luxury yachting experiences with the launch of Luminara in July 2025. Inspired by the Latin word for "light," the 794-foot (242-meter) superyacht accommodates up to 452 guests in 226 distinguished suites. It features the thoughtful touches and refined amenities guests expect from The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection, including private terraces with sweeping views in every suite, an evolving portfolio of premier cuisine, an extensive wine collection, a pampering Ritz-Carlton Spa, and dynamic marina. Expanding the collection's global reach, Luminara began sailing through the Asia-Pacific region in December 2025 and Alaska in May 2026. This marks the collection's first-ever sailings in these regions and unlocks access to captivating and culturally rich destinations across the globe.
